

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Please let this letter convey my enthusiastic and wholehearted recommendation of The Reverend Bridget McCann.

Bridget is a kind, caring and dedicated person. As her background attests, she expresses the rare combinations of intellect and heart, purpose and passion, acquired skills and innovative creativity. Bridget excelled along her initial path in the legal profession. It is inspiring to me that she, nonetheless, remained open to an even higher calling to the New Thought ministry. I am certain that she will bring to this calling the insights from her previous career along with her typical devotion and resourcefulness.

Among her incredibly wide range of skill sets and personal qualities, I greatly admire two things. First, Bridget is a lifelong learner. She is enthusiastic and teachable. She hones her skills through her experiences. I am confident that Bridget will go well beyond her ministerial training and integrate the "fine art" of ministry as she dives into serving.

Secondly, and most important, Bridget has what I call "the minister's heart." Bridget's foundation and core energy is love. She loves the New Thought ministry and she loves people. She will undoubtedly enfold the congregation she serves in her palpable heart energy. People will know that she loves them beyond their past or their problems. She stands on Spiritual Principle and always translates It through love.

Bridget McCann is already a fine minister and proven leader. Her arc of potential is tremendous and undeniable. I know that she will serve tirelessly and with distinction. Please afford Bridget the opportunity to shine her light. She will bless and build the congregation that is wise and fortunate enough to choose her leadership!

Sincerely and with Love,
